Hello Mentors,

Where has the summer gone? We hope yours was great and not too hot! We were able to send 34 of our students to summer camp. They attended one of the following: the Frank Callen Boys and Girls Club, Savannah Cultural Center, the West Broad YMCA, the Coastal YMCA and Isle of Hope Summer Camp. Their summer was much brighter because of these camp opportunities.

We wish to thank our kind sponsors; Kiwanis of Skidaway, Skidaway United Methodist Church, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Gulfstream Corp., WalMart, the Stacey Getz Foundation, and the Laura and Jeff Tremaine Foundation for their help with L.O.V.E.

We provided Cheryl Lordnum with a $500 scholarship to Savannah State University for her outstanding contribution to our Oral History Program.

It is time to return to our mentoring and the kids are waiting! We have been using Junior Scholastic books with our students and when they master reading the book, they may keep it. Please come to The L.O.V.E. Book Fair on October 18th at 3:30 to 5:00 at the Skidaway Methodist Church. The books are free and are fun to use with your students. We will have them divided by age groups.

We are having a training session for new mentors on Sept. 20th at 4:00 pm at the Skidaway Methodist Church. If you know of anyone who may want to be a L.O.V.E. mentor, please have them call or email me at 598-7810 atremaine@bellsouth.net.

There will be additional training sessions for reading and math in October. The dates are to be announced.

Thanks for all you do for the children of Savannah. You really make a difference in their lives.

Ann Tremaine
